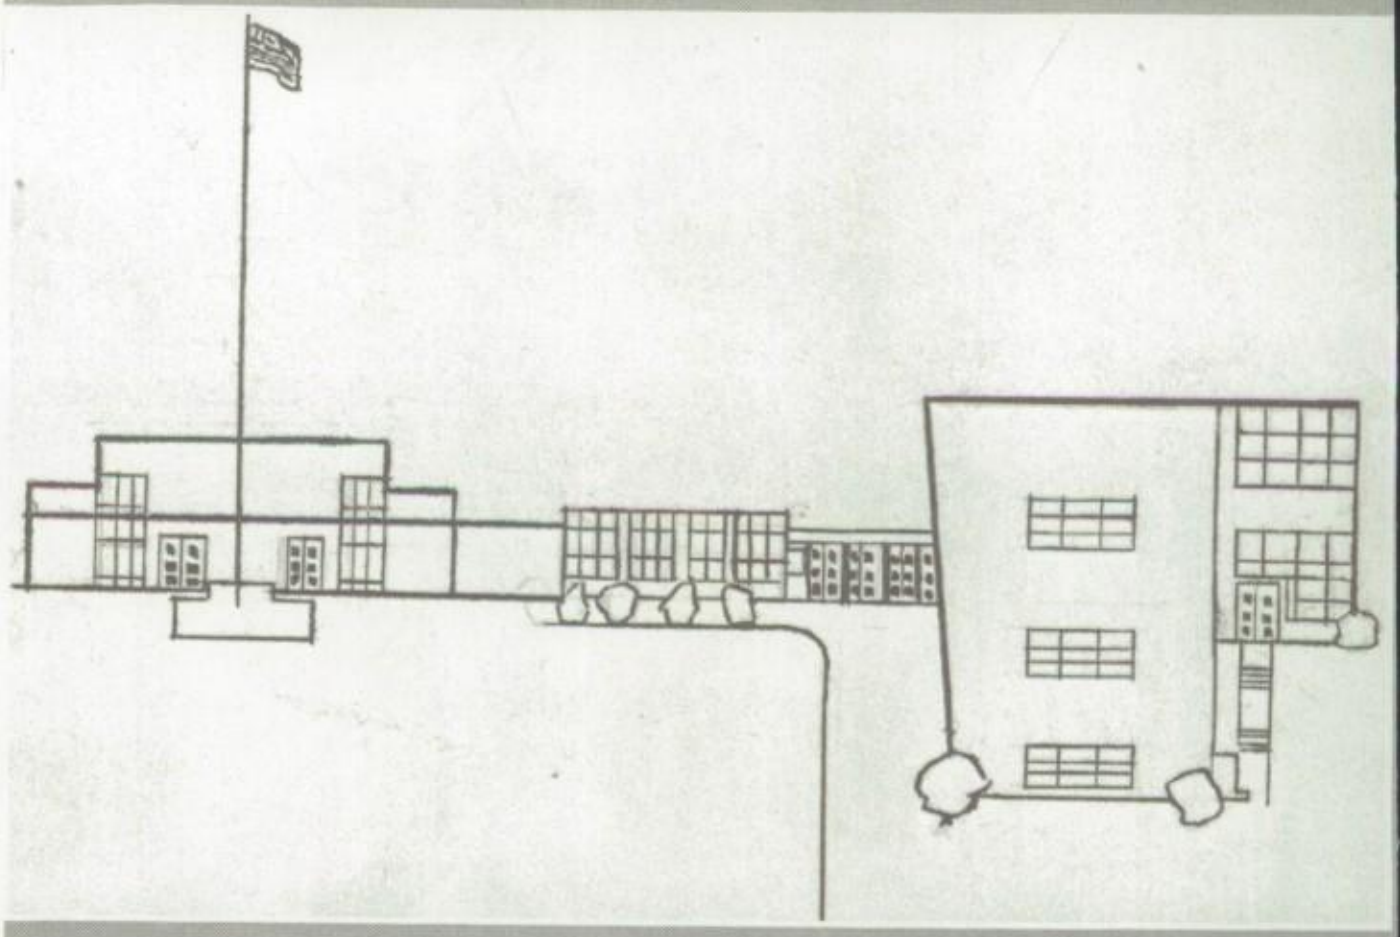
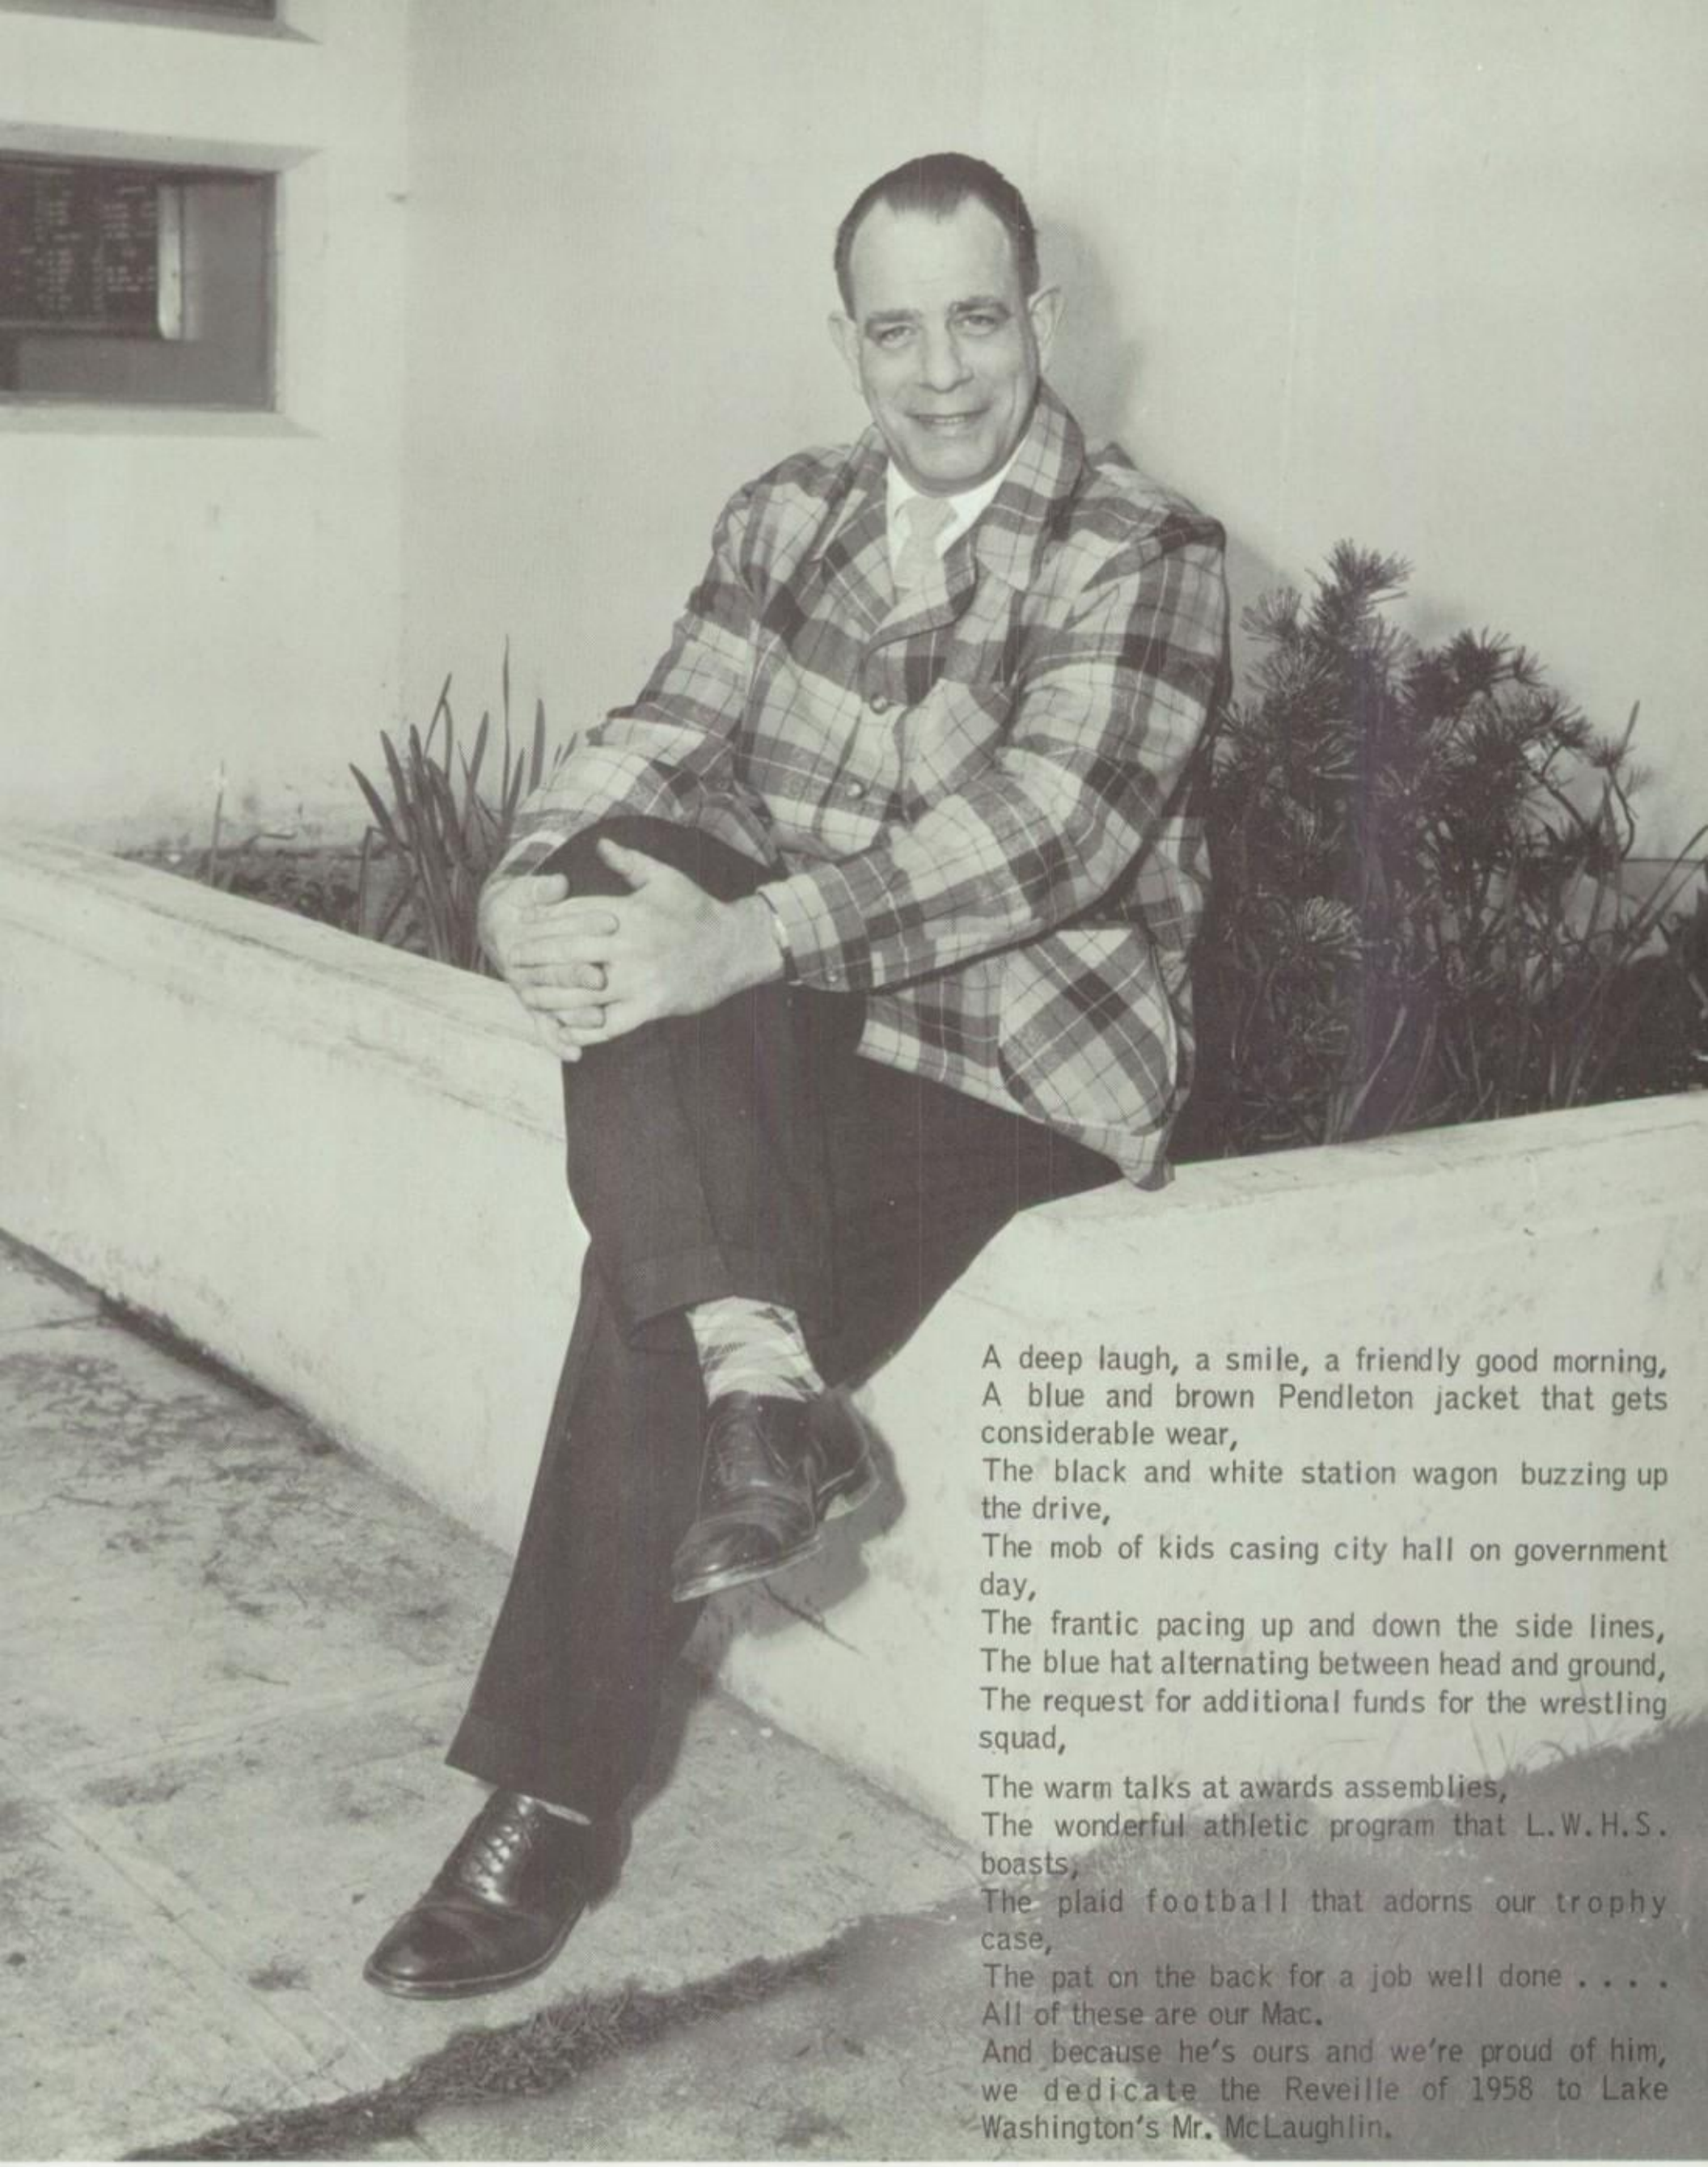
Where does the pathway lead . . . . . That's a thought provoking question. The school year of '57-'58 has been filled with memories. Along the pathway we've gone to classes, to activity meetings, to student council meetings, to assemblies, to football, basketball, and baseball games, to pep assemblies, to dances, to the office. We've followed the path to and fro almost every day. At times we've skipped along; at times we've dragged our feet – but we wouldn't have missed this year for anything. The Reveille of 1958 follows the pathway of events. Each page is filled with stepping stones and memories, signposts to the future.



IN MEMORIAM

PATSY PHELPS
1942-1958
SOPHOMORE CLASS



A deep laugh, a smile, a friendly good morning,
A blue and brown Pendleton jacket that gets considerable wear,
The black and white station wagon buzzing up the drive,
The mob of kids casing city hall on government day,
The frantic pacing up and down the side lines,
The blue hat alternating between head and ground,
The request for additional funds for the wrestling squad,

The warm talks at awards assemblies,
The wonderful athletic program that L.W.H.S. boasts,
The plaid football that adorns our trophy case,
The pat on the back for a job well done . . . .
All of these are our Mac.
And because he's ours and we're proud of him, we dedicate the Reveille of 1958 to Lake Washington's Mr. McLaughlin.

CLAS

Where does the pathway lead?

From crowded halls to hushed classrooms . . . .

To teacher's desks where a never-ending pile of excuses stack up . . . .

Around the oval where the boys are given friendly words of advice . . . "suf-fer" . . . .

To study halls, where whispers are frequently exchanged . . . .

To lockers – slammed with impatience as occupants hurry off to class . . . .

To the final dance of the year – The Senior Ball . . . .

It's a long walk through smiles, frowns, ups and downs; but as the year comes to it's finale, you look back and find . . . .

This is where the Path leads.

Charlie
You a real good
guy. Best of luck
in everything. See ya
next year. Bill "60"

Class of '58

Seniors . . . . . at last. The end of one of the many paths we will travel throughout our lifetimes. The climax of three wonderful years spent in a school of which we are extremely proud. Our memories of this year will stay with us forever, no matter where we go or what we do. The anxiety . . . waiting to hear the results of the pep jug contest. The yelling at our football games. The anticipation on Homecoming night . . . wondering who the queen will be. Weary eyes after many nights of late Blackout practices. The Senior Ball . . . our last high school formal. Finally . . . . Commencement and our Senior Party. We have come to the end of one of the many paths we will be traveling. We have graduated from Lake Washington High School. The signpost points to the future for the Class of '58.

Class of '59

Nancy Askew, Secretary; Jim Baker, Vice-President; Cindi Rainwater, Assistant Secretary; Roy Felstad, President.

Junior Class, you're halfway along the path to Commencement, working energetically to reach each traditional milestone. The Junior Prom, after almost never-ending preparation, turned out to be even better than you had anticipated. You Juniors gave your talent freely to make Blackouts an outstanding success. The overwhelming vim and vigor of your class has been an inspiration to all . . . . . With confidence you look forward to another year. Around the corner lies the Senior Path.

Marv Bowen, Secretary; Bob Sween, President; Tom Toussant, Vice-President.

The pathway awaits . . . . . It's a short walk past crowded halls, clanging lockers, tardy bells, and hushed classrooms. Football . . . Blackouts . . . Basketball . . . and finally the Sophomore Hop. All these things are behind you now. You're nearing the path's end . . . . The Junior Signpost beckons.

ORGANIZA

Follow the pathway . . .

To the student council to vote on the current problems . . .

From cabinet meetings to organized committees . . .

Through the pages of the World to a full knowledge of school events . . .

In and out of Annual Class with busy errands . . .

To the busses after a late activity meeting . . .

Into the office to have signs approved or to give announcements . . .

It is in these ways that our school becomes full of busy times and happy memories for us.

The purpose of our Associated Student Body is to encourage self government, to promote a friendly relationship between students, to direct activities, and to initiate action to the general advantage. Working busily to accomplish such feats is the Student Council. This year, they met each Wednesday to make decisions on such things as the possibility of an exchange student, the changing of the school colors, and the pattern of a new seal. Members of the student council include representation from each council class. Heading this ambitious group are the A.S.B. officers.

Standing committees of the Student Association are the Publicity Committee, the Assembly Planning Board, and the Student Traffic Court. The publicity committee, headed this year by Elaine Collins, sees that the local newspapers have up-to-date stories on school events. The Assembly Planning Board, headed by the A.S.B. vice-president, plans and presents all assemblies except the pep assemblies, which are left to the yell squad. The student traffic court, headed this year by Judge Bob Shular and advised by Mr. Mock, handles student traffic tickets which are referred to them by the Juvenile Traffic Court. They also make an effort to improve the driving of every student.

All students value their part in the government of our school, and appreciate the work which it accomplishes under Mr. Shovlin's direction.

A beautiful day and excited girls – these were the main ingredients in a wonderful two hours entitled "Girls' Club Roundup." The theme, as the name implies, was western. Its purpose was to welcome the new sophomore girls, and welcome them we did. Each girl was assigned a big sister to help her throughout the year. Then, the cabinet members were introduced, after which cupcakes, decorated with multicolored lariats, and coke were served.

Girls' Club sponsors a Tolo, a dance which this year was held on February 22. Because the date was so early, the girls wore semi-formal dresses instead of the usual cottons. Other Girls' Club activities included serving refreshments at the adult education meetings, promoting friendliness, backing regulation day, putting out a charm booklet, and sponsoring girls of the month.

REVEILLE

Where does the pathway lead? For Reveille class, it's been straight to Room 201, where twenty energetic seniors lay out a 108-page memory book, our football programs and the student handbook. Through the year, these people plan, draw, trim, paste-up, blue-pencil, write, proofread, type, agonize, and laugh. And after the deadlines have whizzed by, the book or the program is out, it seems suddenly to have been worthwhile.

GLENDA WILLS

T. Pinney, J. Clark, E. Moyer, S. Holloman, V. Dillman, C. Diesen, S. Jaton (not pictured).

Around the world in 180 days goes the staff of L.W.H.S. newspaper. This year's editors were Glenda Wills and Ron Lynde. These busy people interviewed important visitors to our school and home-grown VIP's as well. Through them, we learn the inside stories of all that has to do with our school. They work hard to bring to us every two weeks news covering our sports and activities. Besides these responsibilities, they attend the Pacific Slope School Press in February each year to keep our school's paper among the most up-to-date in the area.

LOYALTY

Loyalty . . . This name symbolizes one of our finest clubs. It is organized especially for senior girls who have shown leadership, friendliness, and character, and who have high grade averages. In the spring, Juniors who have shown these same qualities are admitted. Initiations take place several weeks after this. It was the Loyalty girls you saw during the year serving lettermen after the games, ushering at alumni reunions and assisting at the Senior Mothers' Tea. Performing these duties is just one of the ways Loyalty members serve the school.

HONOR SOCIETY

Fred Springsteel, President

Honor Society is an honorary organization designed to give recognition to students for high scholastic achievement. Members are chosen on the basis of their scholastic records in high school. Aside from rewarding scholarship, Honor Society serves as an example of the fact that a superior student is usually a well-rounded, active person.

Inductions of new members come in the fall and in the spring. Seniors are inducted during the first semester and juniors and seniors during the second.

Honor Society is ably advised by Miss Helen Orton.

Marie Tellock, President

One of the busiest service clubs clubs in school is the Knights of Axe. The boys and girls that make up this club sell tickets at school functions such as Blackouts, Homecoming and Basketball games. They also park cars for the games. They reflect the name of this club in their loyal service.

Joanne Meyer, President

Blackouts... the climax of Thespian activity at L.W.S.H. can be counted on each year to provide top entertainment. This year, the show featured a saucy combination of "Seasons and Spice."

The club which spends the many hours of hard work necessary for such a production is the Thespians.

Members are chosen in the fall. The qualifications are ambition and original ideas. Besides Blackouts, this club provided programs for alumni groups and other community organizations this season, as well as producing assembly programs throughout the year.

DRILL TEAM

Dorothy Salsbery, Leader

To the rear – March! . . . Plenty of practice goes for a good performance; that's why this year's drill team was especially snappy. For the first time, these girls had a special class and they really made use of it under Miss Reuter's vigorous control. They marched at home football and basketball games and performed in the Blackouts. In the Santa Claus parade they also stepped high, bringing further credit to Lake Washington.

G.A.A.

Somebody get it!

Throughout the year, two nights a week, G.A.A. girls participate in various sports, such as hockey, badminton, recreational games, basketball, volleyball, bowling, softball and archery.

Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Widman and Miss Reuter, they have had other activities, such as a float entered in the homecoming parade, a cake sale, and a food basket for a needy family. Also they have several sports days, when G.A.A. travels to various schools and participates in many sports.

LATIN CLUB

Mike Hyatt,

President

The main project of the Latin Club this year was to devise a language, basically Latin, to speak in class.

The club was very successfully headed by Mrs. Eros. Mrs. Cadle has taken part, too, by taking one class in Latin.

Latin Club was both educational and fun for all students who participated in it.

DEBATE

Chuck Diesen, President

Necessity for self preservation, economic improvement and moral obligation – These are several of the topics which are being discussed by our debate teams. Debate is an active organization headed by Chuck Diesen and advised by Mr. Edwards. Debaters argue in two leagues during the year, Puget Sound and Kingco. The efforts of these hard working students have made our record one of snowballing successes.

F.F.A.

"F.F.A.," best described as Future Farmers and Agriculturists, seeks to attract well qualified boys into the agriculture and science fields and to train them to be leaders in their businesses and communities.

Activities during the school year and summer include judging contests at Evergreen Fair, Western Washington Fair and Auburn; livestock exhibits at the King County Fair, Evergreen Fair – Monroe, Western Washington Fair; and the Auburn Fat Stock Show; field trips to local farms, Seattle and Everett, sponsoring a professional athletic team for a money raising project and doing community services like pruning fruit trees, soil testing and giving demonstrations. A truck and tractor are maintained for use by the members, and further more, the boys compete in the parliamentary law contest with other F.F.A. teams.

A banquet for parents and F.F.A. friends is held at the end of the year. This is truly one of the most active groups at school.

SCIENCE CLUB

To offer students a chance to promote their scientific ideas – that is the purpose of Lake Washington's Science Club. The club, newly activated this year, met evenings at the high school. This enabled the "junior eggheads" to carry on their experiments without disturbing their classmates; however, the club's advisors, the Misters Hansen and Willard, undoubtedly fear that the surrounding countryside will never quite recover.

Actually, it was a very successful year for the club. Some of its members presented science demonstrations for the local elementary schools. The club itself carried on several projects, and, in addition, several members worked on projects of their own. At last report, the club's sputnik project was far in advance of the Army's.

Who is it always running to and fro looking for people to run a movie machine? Who is it that teaches pupils how to show movies, and teaches them how to care for the school's valuable visual aids? The Projector Squad! There are 29 members in the Projector Squad. This valuable group, advised by Mr. Marshall and Mr. Greer and ably led by president, Norval Newell, vice president, Sharon Barta and secretary, Janice Petersen runs our visual aid program, helping the school's teaching facilities to function properly.

Efficient and prompt – These are the qualities of the girls who make our library an easier place to study in. They are those who take attendance and find all the books you couldn't find yourself. They are responsible also for checking books in and out. They help find material for us to use and show us how to use it better.

Another opening, another show,

A chance for stage folks to say "Hello,"
Another opening, another show.

This is Seasons and Spice, the Blackouts of '58. After weeks of hard work, planning, and timing, the rehearsing, last-minute-rushing, and heart-failures, we're on. And then it was Thursday night, 8:00, November 14, the grand opening . . . the trees were in place, the curtains pulled . . . the opening line, then the Spring Entre' Act, then Spring . . . We were off. Season followed Season with Spices intermingling. Singing, dancing, and specialty acts, one after the other, delighted the audience. Then it was the grande finale, the end of the Seasons. The whole cast joyfully sang "Auld Lang Syne" and another show had come to an end.

The Thespians, an able crew, put on another outstanding production under the inspirational guidance of Mrs. Cadle. Dick Holt and Joanne Meyer, co-student directors, chose an able staff. The Seasons chairmen, Laura Jean McIvor – Spring, Linda Johnson – Summer, Dick Holt – Autumn, and Connie Loesby – Winter, the continuity choreographer – Janice Petersen, and the whole production staff worked together to blend the Seasons and Spice into the Blackouts of '58.

HOMECOMING

Hurry! Hurry! Homecoming is only a week away. That's the spirit that made our 1957 Homecoming a real success. The night was cold and clear, and excitement ran high as the Kangaroos defeated the Mt. Si Wildcats by a score of 27-0. During the half time, the drill team marched snappily, and beautiful Sandy Shepard was crowned Queen of the Evening. Attending her were Susie Rainwater, Pat McCormick, Phebe Carlson, and Connie Loesby, princesses. First prize was awarded to the junior class for its beautiful gilded float in the parade which preceded the game. A dance honoring the alumni followed. The gym was gaily decorated with balloons, paper chrysanthemums, and names of the football players. This was a memorable night for all the school.

Homecoming Dance

Hi!

"PINK POODLE PROM"

"Pink Poodle – Mark of distinction." This slogan was typical during the weeks of anticipation before the Junior Prom. And it was weeks! After several cancellations because of flu, a beautiful dance was finally produced. The dance proved worthy of every expectation, with its gay poodle decorations, excellent music, and delicious refreshments.

Intermission found our own school talent entertaining us. Randy Rydeen played his guitar, and then accompanied Jennie Fischer while she sang.

The dance was very successful, and, as the last couples departed, a backward glance would have revealed a deserted pink doghouse, several leftover favors, and two empty chairs which were occupied earlier in the evening by Bob Shular and Norma Parish, Duke and Duchess of the Prom. All these were symbols of a wonderful dance, The Pink Poodle Prom.

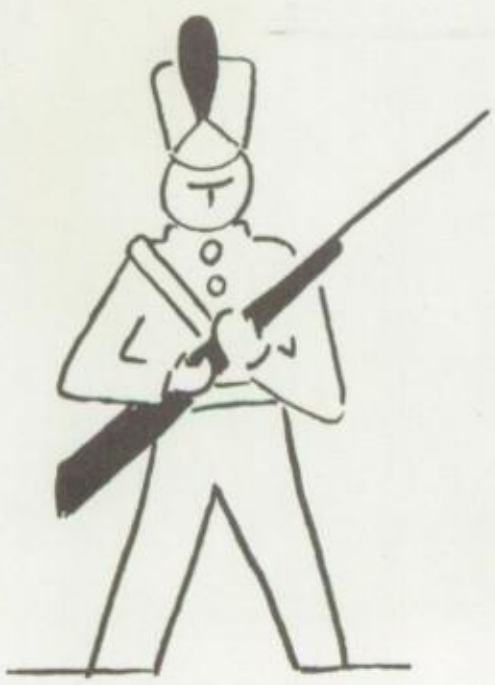
The roll of drums and the call of the trumpet introduced this year's Girls' Club Tolo, the Military Ball. From the Military Whirl to the Tin Soldier's Hop the evening was gay and fanciful. Intermission high lights were the grand march under crossed swords, and refreshments on the observation deck. A senior, junior, and sophomore were chosen general, sergeant, and private and were honored as men of the evening.

We Salute You!



TOUCH OF HEAVEN

A Touch of Heaven, clouds to float on and angels to dance with—the Senior Ball was the first step of our dream fulfilling path to graduation. Decorations including masses of glittering stars, billowy clouds and angelic favors were strikingly displayed.
Music was by the Hal Jones combo, and the entertainment was spectacular.
It was truly a dance to remember.

INSTRUMENTAL

This year's Lake Washington Orchestra, under the capable direction of Mrs. Smith, has spent a busy and very successful year. This talented group of about forty students has played in two concerts, Winter and Spring. They also have participated in the Music Education Competition Festival at Auburn.

The string members of the orchestra make up the Singing Strings, which has played for various organizations including the Womens Federation of Kirkland, The Congregational Church, The Rotary Club, and Eastside Parade of Music. In addition, this group has participated in the Music Education Competition Festival at Clover Park.

Three of the orchestra strings were chosen to play in this year's All-State Orchestra at Yakima, and the All-District Orchestra at Clover Park contained eleven of the Lake Washington Orchestra members.

QUARTETTE

C. Green, M. Hyatt, M. Winkle, L. Kellogg

One of the largest singing groups ever assembled at Lake Washington Senior High School was the 68-voice senior high chorus. With Mrs. Smith as director, the chorus developed rapidly, and finished a full and successful year of rehearsals, concerts, and singing for sheer enjoyment.

The Nonette, also under the direction of Mrs. Smith, participated in many programs during the year. Blackouts, luncheons and dances are only a few of these.

Adding a barbershop note to our vocal groups is the boy's quartette, under Mrs. Smith's direction. These four added a fine act to the Blackouts and have entertained at various other activities.

Also contributing to our music department is the Glee Club. Under the direction of Miss Hawley, this group took part in the Christmas Assembly and the Spring Concert.

All of these groups attended the Kingco music contest at Bothell.

Without the shrill of the brass and the thump of the bass drum, what would a game, a parade, or a pep rally be? Under the direction of Mr. Sheets, our band marched snappily at many football games. Leading this group were the drum major and majorettes, who added both color and exceptional entertainment. In the Santa Claus Parade, they were noted for their fine music and precision marching. Other activities included concerts and participating in the Apple Blossom Festival.

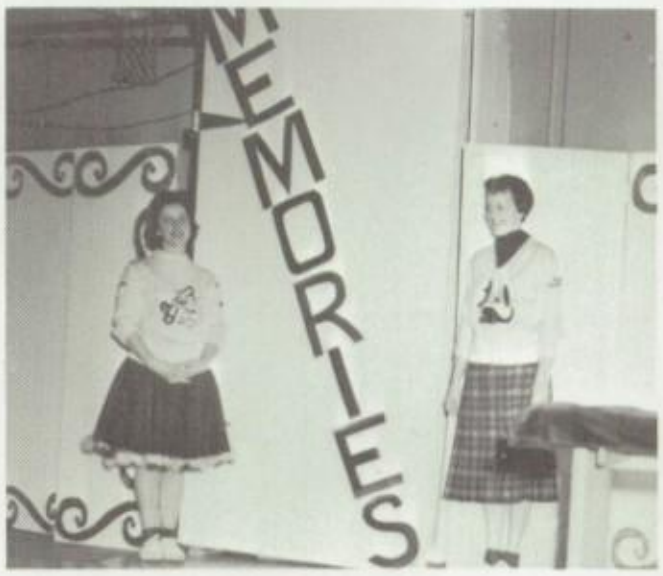
MEMORY DAY

George and Martha Washington: Tito Morelli and Norma Parish.



Door to the Past

Blackout Memory

Once again, the Memory Day assembly was based on the traditions at Lake Washington. Activities, honors, and sports championships were brought back to mind by a large memory book in which Mrs. Cadle's speech class portrayed the year's events. The outstanding senior boy and girl were chosen as traditional George and Martha Washington. The seniors planted the cherry tree and left their identification cards for the future in a steel box planted near the tree. The celebration was brought to a close by a dance for the students and a tea for the teachers.

YELL SQUAD

Pat McCormick, Fran Roberts, Sandy Shepard, Song Queen, Susie Rainwater. Phebe Carlson, Connie Loesby, Yell Queen, Maxene Rutledge and Walt Johnson.

Sis-boom bah! Rah, rah — rah!!
Energetic, talented, and funny. This describes a very popular member of our yell staff for '58. Walt Johnson, under Queen Connie Loesby's supervision, has been an asset to this year's squad. Walt and Connie aren't alone however; Maxene Rutledge and Phebe Carlson have done more than their share to promote school spirit.

Working with these girls are The Songleaders, Fran Roberts, Pat McCormick, Susie Rainwater and Sandy Shepard, Queen. This quartette has made it their main goal to present our school songs with more color and enthusiasm. For the first time this year they have tried making our pep assemblies more appealing by using themes.

All of these girls played a big part in leading our 1958 teams to victory.

For the third straight year, the Kangaroos, under coaches MacLaughlin, Jolgen, Mock and Spencer, have won the championship. The Kangaroos were rated as one of the best teams in the state, and were one of the best teams in the state, and were one of the few undefeated and untied Class A teams in the state. This year's team was considered by many to be the best ever to play for Lake Washington. It started its season at Edmonds where it tamed the Tigers 35-0. The Spartans of Shoreline were the next to fall, 19-0. The season saw the defeat of previously undefeated Bothell, 20-0, and the overwhelming win over Federal Way, 47-0. The last game of the season was played on a foggy Friday night against Bellevue, and that time the Hoppers rolled out a 40-0 win. The end of the season showed a total of 273 points scored by the Hoppers, while their opponents had run up only 20. The total yardage gained was over a mile and a half. Not to be outdone, the Jayvee team finished their season undefeated and untied.

GOLF

COACH BJERKE

Under their new coach, Mr. Bjerke, the golf team ended the '57 season with a 2-2 record, finishing third in the league. The wins were over Mercer Island, 6½ to 5½, and over Foster 7 to 5. Losses came at the hands of Bellevue, 7 to 5 and Bothell, 6½ to 5½, who went on to win the Kingco Championship.

SEASON'S RECORD

Team	Pts.
Bothell	35½
Bellevue	29½
Lake Washington	24
Foster	16½
Mercer Island	14½

ROW ONE: O. Funk, Captain, C. Blanchard, M. Bauman, R. Chantler. ROW TWO: K. Larson, L. McInnis, T. Feek, J. Griffin, C. Wilcox.

BASKETBALL

As in past years, Coach Spencer managed to pull quite a good team from the group of hopefuls that were out for the first turnout. After only a mediocre start in the non-league tilts, the Hoppers opened their league schedule against the Bulldogs of Foster. The Kangs were as much as eight points down at one time in the third quarter, but came through with a 53-45 victory. The best game for the Hoppers was the victory over highly rated Mercer Island. The Hoppers' fine ball handling and spirit were too much for the Islanders as they went down in defeat, 45-40.

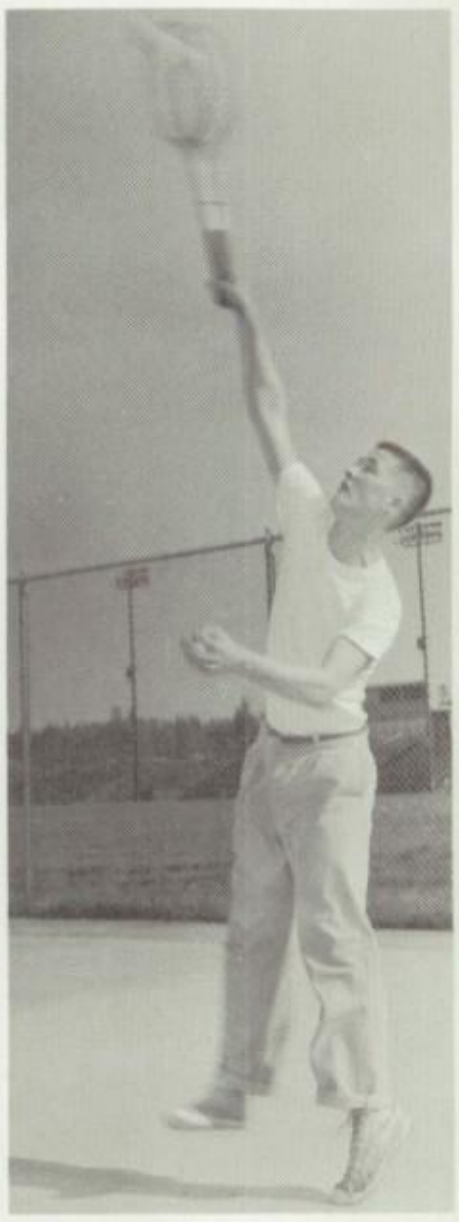
TENNIS

COACH HELGELAND

Winning the Kingco Tennis Championship had become a tradition for Lake Washington teams in previous years, so there was quite a bit of expectancy in the air as the new coach, Mr. Helgeland took over the tennis mentorship. With quite a bit of returning talent to work with, hopes were high to remain in the number one spot.

ROW ONE: B. Broton, R. Chantler, C. Blanchard, B. Bennett, R. Handeguard, G. Jennings.
ROW TWO: A. Martin, M. Brauss, L. Carlson, J. Smith, M. Woodhams, S. Engstrom, R. McAuliffe, E. Gaidas, A. Aries, M. Elduen, K. Jondall, B. Wiesen, P. Lyons, E. Sween, N. Askew.

Who Happen?



WRESTLING

This year's wrestling team was probably the best to ever compete under the purple and white. Coach Jolgen worked the boys hard and this paid off in victories over such teams as Everett, which was rated tops in the state last year, the Vikings of Puyallup, Olympia, Bethel and Fife. Other matches were with Lincoln and Stadium of Tacoma.

COACH JOLGEN

ROW ONE: T. Pound, G. Barrie, M. Downs, R. Dorstad, D. Walker, J. Rezac, B. Hadfield, R. Humphrey, A. Yoeman, Manager. ROW TWO: J. Purcell, W. Farr, J. Gulden, C. Diesen, B. Holly, D. Moesch, P. TRACK

COACH MOCK

G. Bergevin, M. Dillinger, C. Green, C. Lathrum, B. Schneider.

Mr. Mock's thinclads were out in strength as the '58 track season rolled around. This year's track team was quite strong due to many returning lettermen and fine sophomore material. There was good cause to believe that Mr. Mock's yearly goal of sending at least one boy to the state meet would be realized.

Higher! Higher!

Up & Over!

ROW ONE: R. Lynde, F. Shaw, C. Deisen, D. Knight, D. Caron, G. Thompson, D. Moesch, P. Carter. ROW TWO: D. Gleason, G. Weatherby, A. Yeoman, D. Laschkewitsch, B. Stark, S. Dell, B. Taylor, L. McEachern, J. Pierce, P. Alexander, B. Holly, R. Felstad, J. Miller, B. Hunter, O. Harvey, C. Valenta, R. Huddleston, P. Carter.

COACH CHAROUHAS,

ROW ONE: M. Sarver, J. Simmons, D. Peterson, T. Morelli, Mr. Charouhas, Coach. ROW TWO: L. Johnson, J. Jackson, N. Pfeiffer, W. Milton, C. Green, B. White, Managers: F. Fuhrer, D. Owens.

Any time . . .

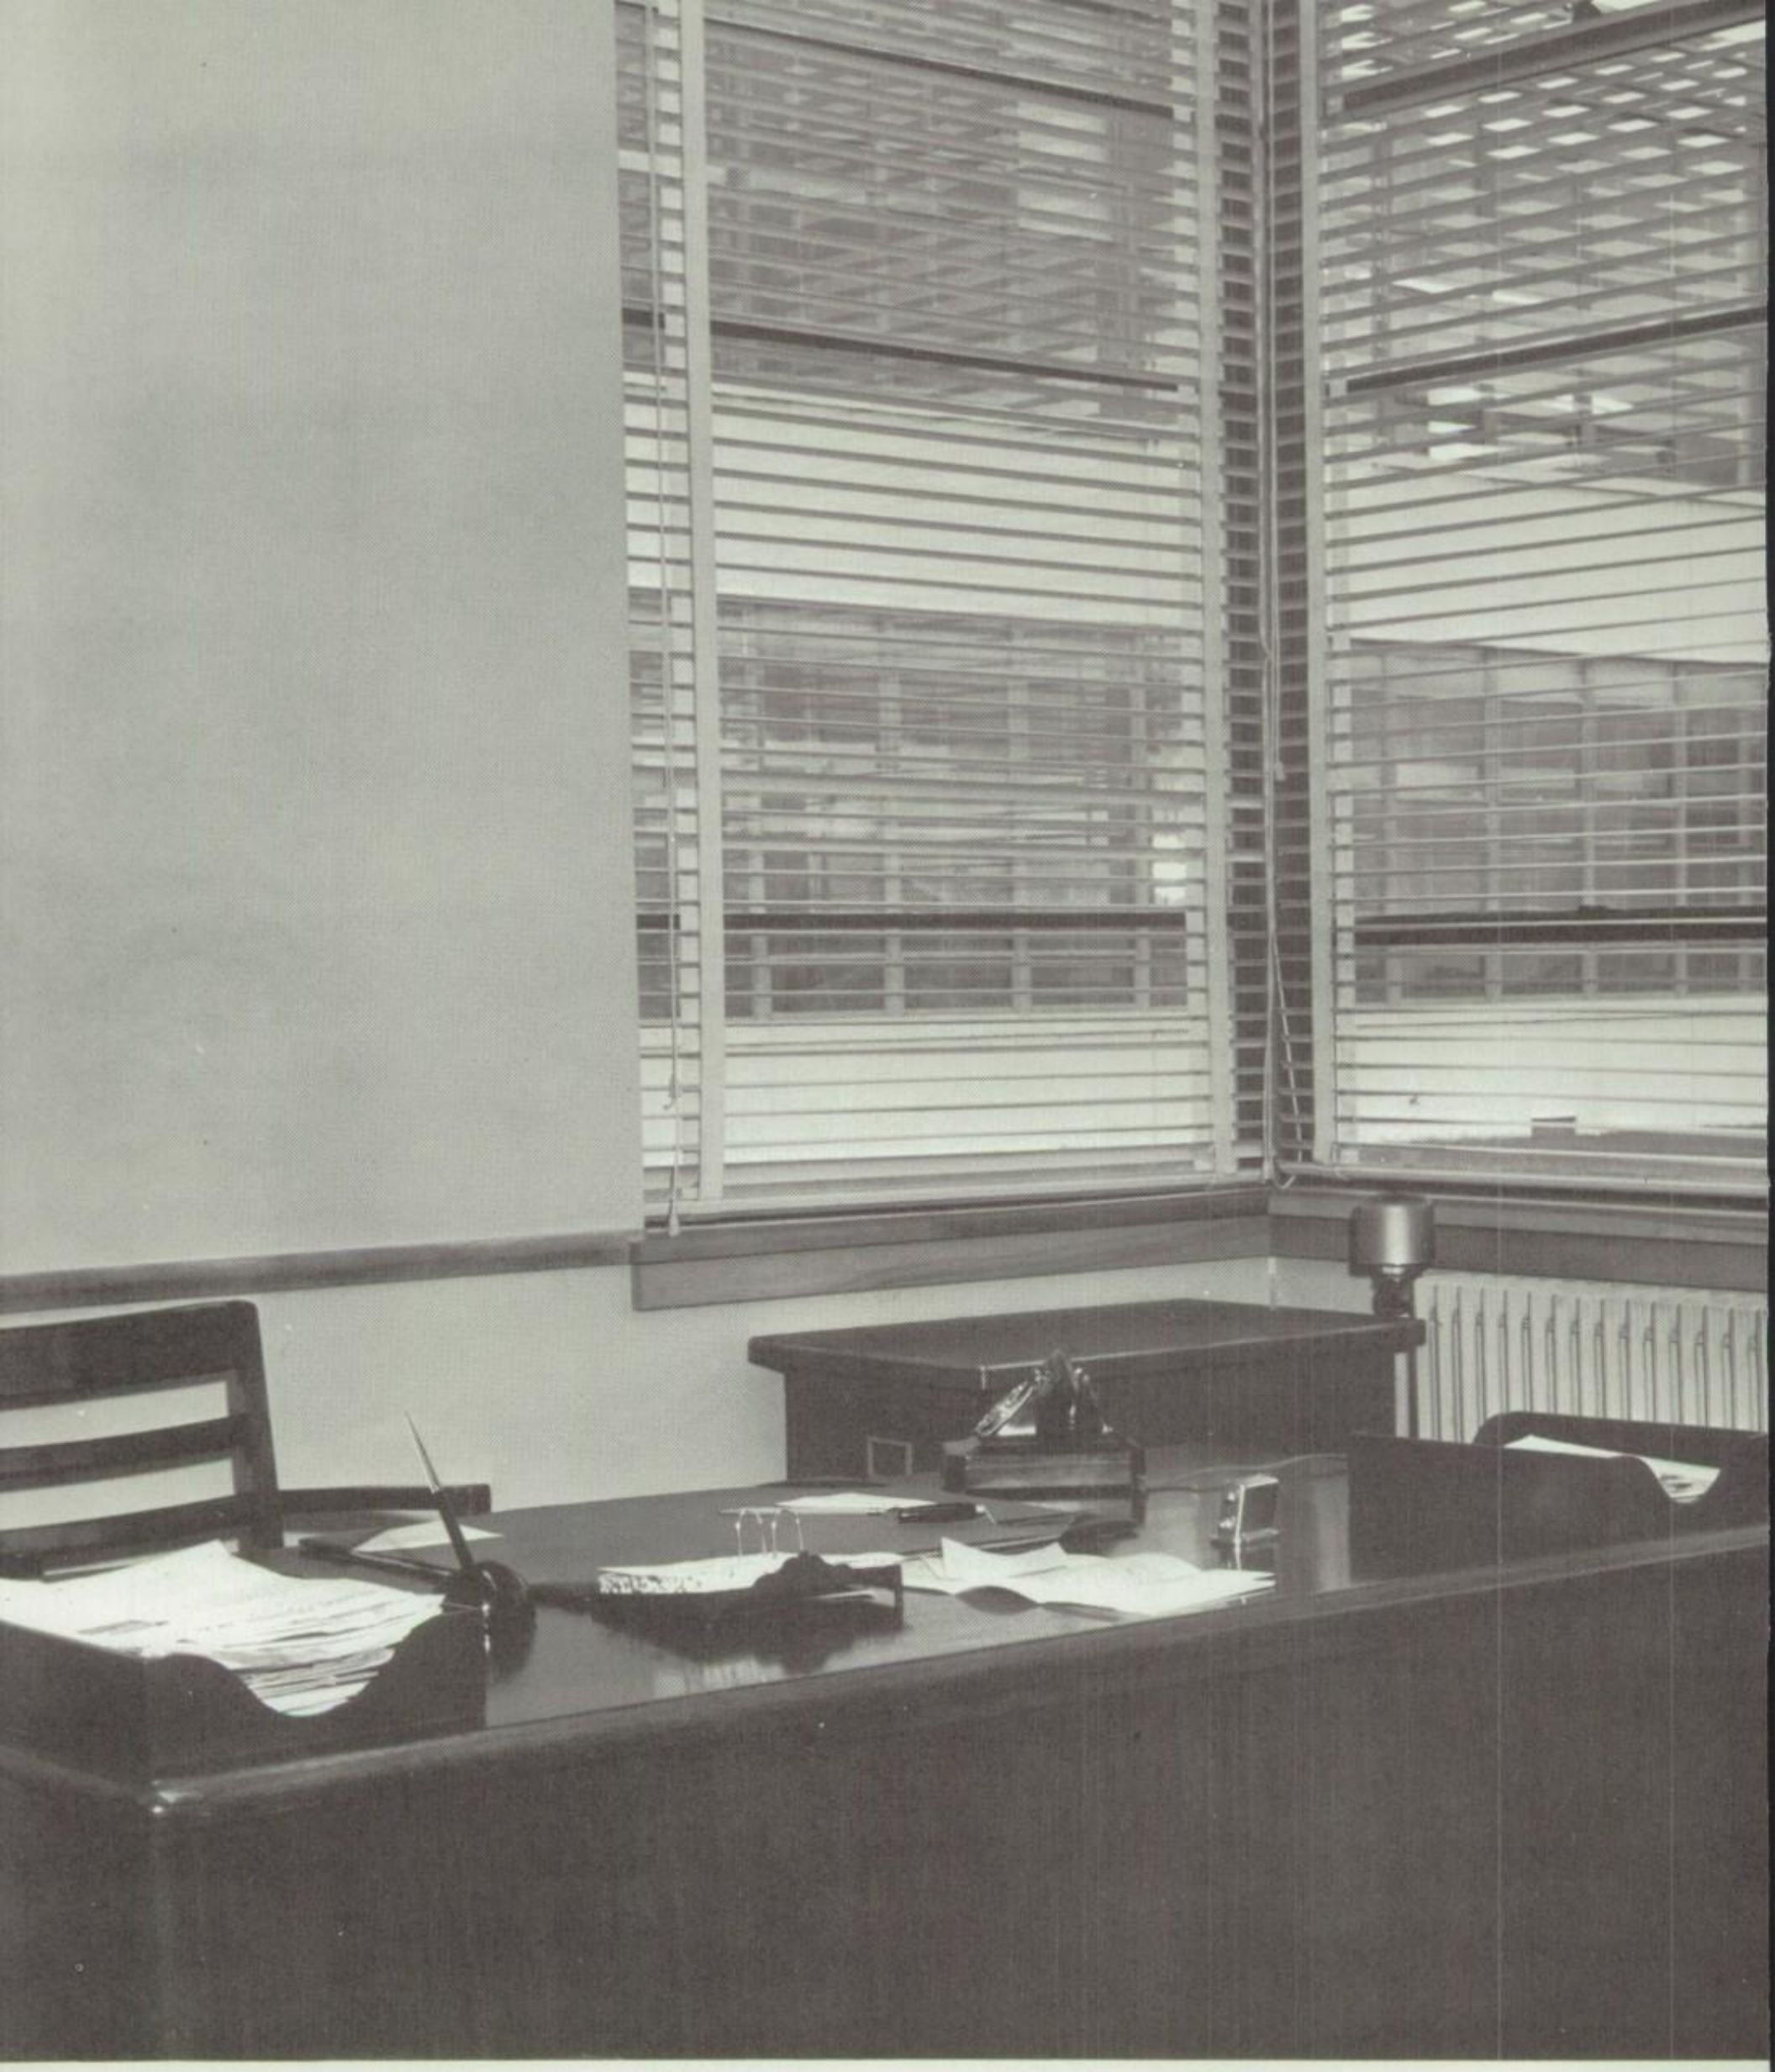
Put her there!

Baseball season saw Mr. Charouhas and quite a few of last year's team returning to the diamond, in addition to many new hopefuls. This year was another vigorous season for the Hopper nine, as they competed with non-league schools as well as their Kingco rivals.

Get ready . . .

Over here!

Here she comes!



ADMINIS

Where does the pathway lead? Into the classrooms where, for the last three years, we have been guided by our teachers. As we leave, however, we think of them not only as teachers but as friends.

We remember clever remarks that made our classtime brighter:

"After all . . . "
"You do this and such . . "
"No kidding? Aw go on . . ."
"What the divvil? Where'd that gol' durned book go?"
"That's the way the ol' cookie crumbles!"
"Suf-furrr . . . "
"Cut'em right down to the meats!"
"Spare the rod and spoil the child . . . "
"Don't sit on the tables . . . "
"Ready? Begin 1-2-3-4 . . . "
"No two colors clash."
"Drewelow, shut up . . . "
"When you fail, I shall chortle in fiendish glee . . ."
"T. G. It's Friday!"
"Take LITTLE OTTO for instance; he writes nothing but gush."
"You mean you were skipping . . . "

Where does the pathway lead . . . . Our steps have lead us here for the past year. The Juniors and Sophomores will follow the same path again, but we Seniors will step onto the path that lies beyond the halls of L.W.H.S. No matter how far our steps take us, we will never forget the memories of our high school days . . . . games, fighting Kangaroos, dances, classes, tests, rush assignments, friends, lockers that jam, deadlines to meet, errands to run, pep assemblies, pep jug, parking lot craters . . . . a never-ending stream of happy thoughts. Now, commencement draws near and we must say, "Good-bye, L.W.H.S.; we'll never forget you," as we leave to discover . . . . Where the pathway leads.
